Insider Selection

The Insider Selection highlights wines that offer something a little different. Chosen for their individuality, character, and sense of discovery, these bottles showcase regions, varieties, and winemaking approaches that may sit outside the familiar. Each wine is selected for its ability to surprise while remaining balanced, approachable, and enjoyable at the table.

SPARKLING

Drappier, Carte d'Or Brut, NV*

125

This Champagne earns its place in the Insider Selection for its expressive, Pinot Noir-led character and its clear sense of tradition. Generous orchard fruit, brioche, and a rounded texture offer depth without excess, making it a confident, reassuring choice with enough personality to stand out.

WHITE

Gabrielskloof 'Amphora', Sauvignon Blanc, Walker Bay, 2023

85

Selected for its individuality, this amphora-fermented Sauvignon Blanc shows a more textured, savoury side of the variety. Citrus peel, stone fruit, and gentle herbal notes combine with bright acidity, offering an alternative expression that reflects both thoughtful winemaking and a willingness to explore beyond the expected.

Zorah 'Voski', Vayots Dzor, Armenia, 2022*

105

Chosen for its sense of place and character, this high-altitude Armenian white brings together freshness, texture, and mineral depth. It represents the Insider Selection's focus on regions that remain underrepresented, yet deliver wines of elegance, balance, and genuine interest at the table.

RED

Bedoba, Saperavi, Kakheti, Georgia, 2022

61

This wine sits in the Insider Selection as a modern expression of one of the world's oldest winemaking cultures. With dark fruit, savoury depth, and firm but polished tannins, it reflects the balance between tradition and drinkability that defines the purpose of this section.

Craggy Range Vineyards, Te Kahu Gimblett Gravels, Hawke's Bay, New Zealand, 2021

89

Included in the Insider Selection for its ability to bridge familiarity and discovery, this Gimblett Gravels blend offers a polished, Bordeaux-inspired style with dark fruit, subtle spice, and refined structure. It sits confidently alongside classic European benchmarks while showcasing the precision and elegance possible from New Zealand's leading sites.

The Best of British

English wine plays an important role on this list. What was once a curiosity has become a clear expression of quality, precision, and ambition, with producers now crafting wines that confidently stand alongside international benchmarks. This section celebrates growers with a strong sense of place and a commitment to expressing the very best of what England has to offer.

GUSBOURNE, KENT

At Gusbourne they let nature be the guide, they work with the land and encourage biodiversity through sustainable practices. Carefully choosing grapes from specific plots in Kent and West Sussex, they strive to make the best quality wine they can.

Only selecting the best grapes from Burgundian clones by green harvesting, which means they cut away and lose a third of every growing bunch to increase the intensity of the chosen bunches to continue on the vine.

DAVENPORT VINEYARDS, EAST SUSSEX

At Davenport Vineyards, Will Davenport has been making wines for 27 years, building from a small start up to a collection of vineyard sites that total 20 acres. The aim is to make wine of the highest quality possible and to make wine that is a true expression of their grape varieties, soil and climate of the vineyards.

He believes that the best way to achieve this is by interfering as little as possible and letting nature take its course (with a modicum of guidance of course). The use of organic methods helps to bring the desired results and has the benefit of also minimising their impact on the environment.

WHITEWOLFE ESTATE, KENT

Whitewolfe Estates, located in Kent's North Downs, is an emerging name in English wine. Founded by Clare Whitehead and Luke Wolfe, the 10-hectare vineyard benefits from a unique microclimate and chalk-rich soils, ideal for Chardonnay. Planted in 2020 with seven Burgundy clones, the vineyard produces wines that balance freshness with complexity. Their meticulous approach-from clone selection to cellar experimentation-yields refined Chardonnays with flinty minerality and citrus elegance. Despite its youth, Whitewolfe Estates has already gained critical acclaim, showcasing the potential of Kent's Kent's Coty region.

RATHFINNY WINE ESTATE, SOUTH SUSSEX

Husband and wife, Mark and Sarah Driver, established the Rathfinny Wine Estate in 2010 on a working arable farm with the express intention of producing some of the world's finest quality English sparkling wines.

Their vision is about a great deal more than the production of outstanding Sussex Sparkling wine. Rathfinny aims to contribute something special to the unique spirit of this beautiful part of Sussex, which has been farmed since medieval times.

NYETIMBER, WEST SUSSEX

Nyetimber, based in West Sussex, is a pioneer of English sparkling wine. First recorded in the 1086 Domesday Book, the estate was transformed into a vineyard in 1988 and has since expanded to 425 hectares across 11 carefully selected sites in Sussex, Hampshire, and Kent. Owned by Dutchman Eric Heerema and guided by award-winning Head Winemaker Cherie Spriggs, Nyetimber crafts exceptional sparkling wines exclusively from Champagne varieties—Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, and Pinot Meunier. Their meticulous winemaking process, including estate-grown, handpicked grapes and traditional Coquard pressing, ensures remarkable quality.
